The Center for Educational Effectiveness (CEE) offers workshops to support faculty who want to advance, enhance, or fine-tune their teaching. Each experiential session has practical, evidence-based strategies that you can apply in your classes right away. A light lunch will be provided at all workshops.

Aggies of Today, Aggies of Tomorrow: Situating and supporting UC Davis students within a changing higher education landscape
Learn about the strengths and needs of UC Davis’ diverse student body in the context of enrollment trends.

Monica Christina Esqueda, Ph.D.
Center for Educational Effectiveness
12:15 - 1:30 pm

Fostering Student Motivation to Increase Engagement in Learning
Explore strategies that help increase student motivation.

Patricia Turner, Ph.D.
Center for Educational Effectiveness
12:15 - 1:30 pm

Teaching Diverse Learners
Reflect on the role of identity in learning and discuss strategies for creating an equitable classroom.

Cecilia Gomez, Ph.D.
Center for Educational Effectiveness
12:15 - 1:30 pm

Collaborative Writing in Class: An opportunity for all our students to develop critical thinking skills using primary literature
Learn how to build students’ critical thinking skills in high-enrollment courses through collaborative writing.

Silvia Carrasco Garcia, Ph.D.
Department of Molecular and Cellular Biology
12:15 - 1:30 pm

Guest Workshop: Free Speech in the Classroom: Facilitating productive dialogue in polarized political times
Discuss strategies to promote student engagement, safety and belonging in your classes.

Elizabeth Meyer, Ph.D.
University of Colorado, Boulder
12:00 - 1:00 pm

To learn more or register, visit: bit.ly/CEEworkshops
Phone: (530) 752-6050

cee.ucdavis.edu