

UCDAVIS

FALL 2018 GRADUATE STUDENT WORKSHOPS

Theme: Foundations in Teaching

Graduate students and postdoctoral scholars from all disciplines are invited to attend engaging and informative workshops about teaching in higher education. Participants will learn research-based instructional strategies, connect with other graduate instructors, and leave with new ideas to enhance learning for all students. Learn more and register: bit.ly/CEEworkshops. All workshops are held in Student Community Center Meeting Room D.

OCT
9
TUE

The Goal is the Guide: Effective Lesson Planning
2:10 - 4:00 pm
Learn how to formulate effective learning outcomes and lesson plans in this workshop.

OCT
16
TUE

Beyond Grades: Assessment and Feedback for Student Learning
2:10 - 4:00 pm
This workshop will equip you with the tools to effectively gauge your students' learning and provide effective constructive feedback.

OCT
23
TUE

Keep Them Engaged! Active Learning for Student Success
2:10 - 4:00 pm
Build your repertoire of skills in teaching using active learning at this workshop.

OCT
24
WED

Guest Workshop: Free Speech: Facilitating Productive Classroom Dialogue in Polarized Political Times
11:30 am - 1:00 pm (Not required for certificate)
*Elizabeth J. Meyer, Ph.D.,
University of Colorado, Boulder*

OCT
30
TUE

Creating Inclusive Classrooms: Diversity and Access in Education
2:10 - 4:00 pm
Discover and discuss practical strategies that help you create a more inclusive classroom.

NOV
6
TUE

Experiential Learning for Lab, Studio and Applied Classroom Settings
2:10 - 4:00 pm
Explore ways to effectively facilitate learning experiences so that course material 'comes alive' for students.

NOV
13
TUE

Building Supportive Learning Environments for Critical Conversations
2:10 - 4:00 pm
Learn the skills needed to create supportive environments that lead to discussions that encourage student engagement and critical thinking.

Participants who attend five of six workshops may earn a certificate. To learn more or register, visit: bit.ly/CEEworkshops

UCDAVIS

Center for Educational Effectiveness

Office of Undergraduate Education