Graduate Teaching Community (GTC) Facilitator

The Center for Educational Effectiveness (CEE) is now accepting applications from currently-enrolled UC Davis graduate students who are interested in serving as a facilitator for the Graduate Teaching Community for the 21-22 academic year (Fall, Winter, and Spring).

Responsibilities:
● Coordinate GTC planning and marketing efforts with CEE staff
● Coordinate materials and room logistics
● Determine a meeting structure and theme/readings for each quarter
● Facilitate hour-long weekly meetings and coordinate participant presentations
● Maintain records for the GTC, including participation and certificate completion
● Collect assessment data and write a quarterly report

Qualifications:
● Experience as a TA/AI

Preferred qualifications:
● Active participation in the Graduate Teaching Community
● Interest in/knowledge of the literature on teaching and learning

Compensation: Facilitators receive a $250 stipend each quarter

Applications are due by 5:00 pm PT on June 4, 2021. Please apply using the form linked below: GTC Facilitator Application